MIKE AND HIS DOGS

Mike is nine years old. He is an only child. He hasn't got any brothers or sisters, but he has got two dogs. Their names are Max and Rex. He likes his dogs very much.

Mike looks at the clock on the wall. It's 8:15. It's time for his favourite Sunday TV show. It starts in 15 minutes. He sits on the blue sofa in his room and turns on the TV. But then he hears something at the door. His dogs.

– Oh, no! – says Mike. The dogs want to go out. But Mike doesn't live in a house. He lives in a flat, so he can't let the dogs go out into the yard. He has to take his dogs for a walk.

Mike is sad. He'll miss his favourite TV show. – Why now? – says Mike.

But Mike is a good pet owner. He likes his dogs more than the TV show. So he turns off the TV. Max and Rex are happy. The dogs look at Mike and wag their tails. Mike is not sad any more. There is a big smile on his face.

– Come on, Max. Come on, Rex – says Mike. – Let's go for a walk!

Luke is very excited.

It is his first day at his new school. He is wearing a blue t-shirt with thirteen white stars on it.

Luke's new classroom is very big. There are 11 desks in it. There are books, rulers, and sharpeners everywhere.

There are ten boys and twelve girls in the class. Luke likes the girl with dark curly hair and big blue eyes. She's so pretty. The chair next to her is empty.

– This is our new pupil, Luke. Sit next to Betty, Luke – says the teacher, pointing to the girl with curly hair.

Then, the teacher starts reading a very interesting story.

– Do you like the story? – whispers Betty.

– Yes, I like stories about magic – says

Luke. – What about you?

– I like them, too.

– Shhhh. The teacher is coming here – says Luke.

– There are 26 letters in the English alphabet. Can you spell one word, Luke?

– asks the teacher.

– Yes, I can. B-E-T-T-Y.

– Excellent – says the teacher.

– Now you spell a word, Betty.

– M-A-G-I-C – says Betty, smiling at Luke.

Now Luke knows that Betty likes him, too. It's real magic. He is in love.

What a wonderful day!

AT THE PARTY

It's February. There are five boys and three girls at Mark's house. They are having a party. Everybody is wearing a mask. Mark is a sailor. He's wearing a white and blue t-shirt. He has got a paper boat on his head and a black pipe in his mouth. And who is behind the pirate mask? His brother David. Fred is a caveman. He has got a plastic dinosaur bone in his hand and a monkey toy on his shoulder. It's strange, but there are no ghosts and witches. Mary is a beautiful princess, Sue is a goldfish, Bob is a clown, and Tom is a wizard. He is saying 'Abracadabra' while Betty, the cook, is putting her apple pie and cheese sandwiches on paper plates.

There is a knock at the door.

– Who is it?

– It's me. Kevin.

Kevin has got a white cast on his left arm.

– What an original mask! You are a patient, Kevin, aren't you? – says Betty.

– But this isn't a mask. I broke my arm – says Kevin.

– It's the best mask at the party – say the children, and give him warm hugs.

– Let the party begin! – says Mark.

LAZY DAISY

It's Monday. Daisy is in her room. She is playing computer games.

Her room is untidy. There are things everywhere: on the floor and under the bed. There is her yellow t-shirt on the chair. There are two tennis balls in her sneakers.

– Tidy up your room, Daisy! – says her mum.

– Tomorrow, mum! – says Daisy.

It's Tuesday. Daisy is sitting on the floor. She is texting messages to her friends.

There is an empty water bottle next to her.

– Tidy up your room, Daisy! – says her mum.

– Tomorrow, mum! – says Daisy.

It's Wednesday. Daisy is watching TV in her room.

Her friends Bella and Stella are at the door.

They are going to a swimming pool.

– Come with us, Daisy! – say the girls.

Daisy can't find her swimming suit.

She calls her mum at work.

– Where's my swimming suit, mum? – asks Daisy.

– Somewhere in your room – says her mum, but Daisy can't find it.

So she can't go to the swimming pool with her friends. She is very sad.

It's Thursday. Daisy is running around her room, putting everything back in its right place.

– My room is tidy, mum! – says Daisy.

– Then we can go to the swimming pool tomorrow – says her mum, smiling.
